

The Dice Mice

[1]

Half Title

[2 - 3]

Title Page

[4 - 5]

The two mice girls liked to jump on the leaves
That the cool Autumn wind shook from the trees.

Crunch crunch crunch

[6 - 7]

“It’s fall already, nearly Halloween night,
And there’s no costume for us, no two in sight!”

[8 - 9]

“You’re right, that time is already here.”
Both mice girls were filled with fear.

[9 - 10]

They went into the garage looking to claim
Just stuff in twos, for costumes the same.

[11 - 12]

A boa, a necklace, a wig and more
So much stuff it’s junk galore!

[13 - 14]

“Not this, not that, no, these won’t do!”
“For we must, we must, have each in two!”

[15 - 16]

They dug into boxes for whatever was stored,
Until suddenly One looked past the hoard.

[17 - 18]

“The boxes!” Said One, “The boxes, are it!”
But Two was confused and ready to quit.

[19 - 20]

“We could be square, cubed, like cheese!”
Then Two caught on, “Or maybe like these”

(image: pair of dice)

[21 - 22]

And just like that they decided on dice,
Not one, but a pair is twice as nice.

[23 - 24]

They ran to the store to find some supplies,
Paint and glitter and many great buys!

[25 - 26]

Cut some holes, six will do
But cut them again for costume two.

[27 - 28]

They painted, they polished, until they glittered
As the time neared, their little hearts flittered.

[29 - 30]

The night finally came for those two lovely mice
They danced and they spun, not one, but two dice!

[31 - 32]

The two mice girls liked to eat all their treats
After that night, spinning street after street.

Crunch crunch crunch